Note:

The dates of the playoffs are subject to change

The start of Round Two of the playoffs will begin on the first day possible where both participants have already concluded their series.

The championship is a best-of-three format consisting of a single game on day one and a doubleheader on day two will take place. This will help cut down on travel. Game one will take place at the site of the lower seed and games two and three will take place at the higher seed. This is unless BOTH teams agree to play a 1-1-1 format.
